Cranberry Cheese Bread Bowl

1 cup sugar
1 cup tangerine or orange juice
2 cups frozen cranberries
2 teaspoons fresh chopped rosemary leaves
1/4 cup dry white wine (optional)
One 6-inch wheel Brie cheese
One 9-inch round sourdough bread boule
2 tablespoons melted butter
Sea salt
Ground black pepper

Directions:

Line baking sheet with parchment paper. Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. In a medium sized saucepan, mix sugar, tangerine juice, and white wine; stir until sugar has dissolved. Add cranberries and rosemary. Simmer about 20 minutes, stirring occasionally until liquid has thickened. Pour sauce into long pan or baking sheet and refrigerate about one hour until cooled.

Place Brie on top of the bread boule and trace a circle using a paring knife (be sure to cut straight down). Carefully pull out the cut circle and scoop out the inside of the bread boule leaving one inch of crust. Keep and use the bread pieces for dipping; brush them with butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper to taste.

Set aside about 1/3 cup of the cranberry mixture. Pour the remaining sauce into the hulled out bread boule. Slice the top off the Brie and place into the bread boule on top of the cranberry mixture. Place break "lid" back on top of the boule and bake it approximately 45 minutes until cheese is warm and bread has turned golden brown. Put the buttered bread pieces in the oven during the last 10 minutes of baking the boule.

Place bread boule on a serving platter, remove lid, and pour remaining cranberry mixture over the top. Place bread pieces around the serving platter. Add crackers if you wish.

Living with hearing loss.

Planning for the holidays with hearing loss.

The holidays can be full of joyous events, visiting friends and relatives, and festive parties. While it's a time for celebration, it can also be especially stressful for those with hearing loss. The noise level increases, making it difficult to hear. With a little planning, you can truly enjoy the holiday cheer. Here are a few considerations to keep in mind:

- Schedule a check up with your hearing healthcare provider to be ready for the holidays.
- Make sure your hearing aids are up to date and have fresh batteries. Carry an extra set with you. The same goes for any other assistive hearing device.
- Speech recognition is a definite challenge when music is playing or crowds are gathered. Let others know you want to have a good time, too. Don't be afraid to ask the host to adjust the volume of the music.
- Avoid being overwhelmed by crowds. Rather, focus on small group conversations. Switch seats if necessary or choose a quiet area in the room with your back to a wall. This will block out some of the noise.
- Let the host know you might need assistance. They will appreciate it because you're their guest.

Enjoy the holidays by planning ahead. You'll be glad you did.

FEDERAL LAW PROHIBITS ANYONE BUT REGISTERED USERS WITH HEARING LOSS FROM USING INTERNET PROTOCOL (IP) CAPTIONED TELEPHONES WITH THE CAPTIONS TURNED ON. IP Captioned Telephone Service may use a live operator. The operator generates captions of what the other party to the call says. These captions are then sent to your phone. There is a cost for each minute of captions generated, paid from a federally administered fund.
